OT Begins 2015 Season with a Full Staff

Midwest Old Threshers is up and running with a full staff. Kat Zeglen has been hired on as administrative assistant and John Dunnegan will be responsible for Public Relations and Marketing.

Dunnegan comes with an extensive background in radio and marketing and will be working closely with Threshers CEO, Terry McWilliams. "I am excited! Old threshers has always been a must attend event for my family; a pioneer log village, old west town, museums, trains, trolleys, tractors along with nightly world class entertainment. I want to share the excitement. I've always felt that Old Threshers is a family vacation in Iowa's backyard." said John.

Kat has a bachelor's degree in communications, and an associate's degree in nursing, and will be a great addition to the Threshers team. She and her husband Rob, owner of Zeglen Construction, reside in Olds with their son Rhett. Rhett is an eighth grader at Mt. Pleasant Schools. John and his wife Dawn, who is employed with Iowa Wesleyan College, live near Yarmouth with children Patrick & Eileen. Their daughter Hillary, of Hampton Virginia is a 2011 graduate of Iowa Wesleyan.

OT Hosts Alive After 5, Announces Entertainment

Midwest Old Threshers staff and Board of Directors hosted the March Mt. Pleasant Chamber Alive After 5 event with the help of Main Street Cinemas.

Almost every seat was filled and guests stood at the back of the theatre to hear the entertainment line-up for the 2015 Reunion. Video Production Services compiled video footage of the country music stars appearing at the Old Threshers Reunion this year. The video was broadcast on the movie screen and received applause as each act was announced. Check out page 4 to see who is coming.

In addition to the KILJ Grandstand Stage, musical entertainment abounds through out the grounds from the North Village to the Log Village. Best of all, the cost is included with the price of admission!

Tickets for reserved seats in the Grandstand are on sale now at the Old Threshers office or by calling 319-385-8937. An adult five-day admission is $20 if bought by May 31st, $30 beginning June 1st so get yours now! Veteran's one-day admission on Thursday is $10.00. FFA and 4-H members get in for $10 any day of the Reunion. Be sure to wear your FFA or 4-H t-shirt. Kids 10 and under are free.

Mt. Pleasant Chamber Members fill the theatre at Main Street Cinemas on March 11th in anticipation of Old Threshers announcing the entertainment line-up for the 2015 Reunion.

Donations to Foundation Benefit Projects at OT

Spring is about to “spring” into action here at Midwest Old Threshers. Campers are already reserving their camp spots for the 2015 Reunion; tickets to the grandstand entertainment will go on sale once the performers are announced mid-March. Plans are already being made for steam school, the swap meet, the Busey Doll Event and school tours – all of which take place in May.

Speaking of school tours, Old Threshers hosts more than 1,000 students, grades 4-6 throughout the month of May. The school tour program gives us the opportunity to teach the younger generation and nurture an appreciation for our agricultural heritage. These students get a snapshot of what can be seen and done at the annual Old Threshers Reunion; hopefully, they will share this experience with their parents and encourage the family to come back to the Reunion. During the 2014 Reunion, the Foundation was able to raise over $9,000 toward the school tour program by raffling a signed guitar, donated by Leroy and Gladys Van Dyke, during the Country Gold evening concert. The guitar was then presented to Nella Thomas, a Mt. Pleasant native who performed with Country Gold that evening as a special guest.

We thank all of you who have supported the Old Threshers Foundation with your charitable contributions throughout the years, last year's net income of $80,694.62 was the largest amount of earnings in our Foundation's history. This amount was transferred from the Foundation following our annual meeting in November to Midwest Old Threshers for their financial support in 2015. Only the earnings are transferred; the principal amount of your contributions remains invested in the permanent endowment.

Providing this financial support to Midwest Old Threshers is the sole purpose of the Foundation. Since it was founded in 1986, the Foundation has transferred over ONE MILLION in earnings from its permanent endowment to Midwest Old Threshers. These earnings represent the interest and dividends received from our trust account plus rental payments received from the Illinois farm and earnings received from the Granaman Trust, both of which were bequeathed to the Foundation.

In recent years the Foundation earnings have contributed toward the construction of the new Welcome Center, construction of the restroom/shower facility in the Log Village, construction of the gas engine and traction steam headquarter buildings, trolley track maintenance, additional electrical service in the campground and the new museum display, the final one designed by Lennis Moore, for cars and trucks.

Donors to the Old Threshers Foundation now have a new option to contribute to specific immediate financial needs or special projects at Midwest Old Threshers. With the creation of the pass through account, money can now be designated for specific needs and immediately be passed on to Old Threshers. In addition to the $80,000+ in earnings given to Midwest Old Threshers this past year, an additional $125,000+ has been given to them through the pass through account for specific purposes; examples include the Mount Pleasant Festival of Lights, Printers' Hall, Drive a Tractor, the trolley, the carousel, school tours and the new museum display for cars and trucks.

All gifts to the Old Threshers Foundation, either as a long-term investment in the permanent endowment or as a short-term investment in the new pass through account, qualify as charitable contributions to a non profit 501(c)(3) organization for Federal income, estate and gift tax purposes. We are always appreciative of any gifts received, whether in the form of cash, stocks or deferred giving. If you have any questions or need additional information about any of these options, please contact me at the Midwest Old Threshers office 319-385-8937 or e-mail offoundation@oldthreshers.org.

Pace Family Tree Rooted in Massey Harris

Editor's Note: This is part two of a series showcasing four families who own Massey-Harris tractors.

Tim and Connie Pace live on their family's Century Farm in Muscatine. Tim's grandfather, Earnest, was a sales agent for the Massey-Harris Company based in Muscatine. Earnest's clientele were southeast Iowa farmers. Little did he know, he would start a loyal following within his own family.

Though the first tractor used on the family farm was a 1915 Wallis Cub Jr, over the years their collection grew to include 35 Massey-Harris in various stages of disrepair. Out of those 35, there are only three that don't run.

With that many tractors, it's important that they run. "If you have to get to a tractor toward the back, all the others have to be moved in order to get it out," says Tim.

As Earnest's sales route took him further and further from home, he acquired tractors that had been abandoned and his collection grew in number and maker. Other manufactures include McCormick Deering, Case, Oliver, Rumley, Oliver Hart-Parr and Ford.

Earnest's son, and Tim's father, Harold, worked the family farm with two Massey-Harris General Purpose tractors and a Wallis 1220. Tim remembers his dad demonstrating a 4WD Massey-Harris with a Pulverator plow. The unique plow was manufactured by General Konnie and Tim Pace (Back) and Harold and Barb Pace pose with one of their 35 Massey-Harris tractors. Massey-Harris will be featured at the 2015 Reunion.

Implement Company and sold by Massey-Harris.

The Pace family started exhibiting at Old Threshers in 1981.

They also take part in the Massey-Harris Days Reunion and have hosted the event at their farm in 2001, 2002, 2003 and 2008. People come from all over the world and 12 states to attend the event.

The Pace's enjoy attending tractor shows and say they enjoy making friends with people no matter what type of tractor they collect.

Tullers Named 2015 Harvest Parade Marshals

Louis and Doris Tuller, Mt Pleasant, are this year's Harvest Parade Marshals. Louis retired last November after 36 years on the Old Threshers Board of Directors. He was in charge of the Gas Engine Area.

"The Midwest Old Threshers Board of Directors felt it was appropriate to ask Louis and Doris to serve in that capacity after 36 years of service to the Association," said CEO Terry McWilliams.

The Harvest Parade will be Wednesday, September 2nd at 3:30pm. The route will be as it was last year taking participants down Washington Street.

RESTORATION CORNER

After 35 Years, 1914 20HP Advance Roars Back to Life

Aaron Bixler's 1914 20HP rear mount Advance powers the separator at the 2014 Old Threshers Reunion.

Aaron Bixler made his first visit to an Old Threshers Reunion in 1985 as a young, impressionable 3-year-old. By the time he was five, the Midwest Central Railroad had him hooked. As he grew older, his interests gradually migrated to the traction steam area.

It was only a matter of time before Aaron acquired a traction steam engine of his own. In 2006, while home on leave from his Tour of Duty in Iraq, he bought a 20-75 double cylinder Nichols and Shepard. Restoration included building new, riveted coal boxes, taking off a homemade operator platform and doing some machine work to the valve gear.

In the fall of 2013, he discovered an 1894 13HP Nichols and Shepard in Monticello, Iowa. After he found a buyer for his first engine he was able to acquire the 13HP that had spent many years in a barn. He repainted the engine, made a new smokestack and had the missing top smoke stack casting made. A new rear platform, water and coal box, proper decals for the boxes, and machine work on the valve gear rounded out the restoration work.

In October of 2014, a friend, Chris Jowwett, told him about a 1914 20HP rear mount or "corner bracket" Advance he knew was for sale in Nevada, Missouri owned by the late Lyle Onckelet. Aaron and Chris went down there armed with an ultrasound thickness tester. Having a viable boiler would be key to deciding whether or not to buy the engine.

The engine was last restored in 1975 and sat untouched for 35 years. As luck would have it, the boiler was in excellent shape. There was still a lot of work to be done, but Aaron knew he wanted the engine. The two returned to Odessa to participate in the Jowwett Saw Day.

After three months of hard thinking, and finding someone to buy his 13HP Nichols and Shepard, Aaron made a deal. Armed with a tractor to pull the Advance off the hill, and a lowboy to haul the engine away, Aaron headed back to Nevada, Missouri.

"In the early morning hours one day in mid-February, Gary Flemming, Chris Jowwett and I loaded my new engine on to Gary's lowboy and hauled it back to David Jowwett's shop in Odessa, Missouri," recalls Aaron. They started disassembling some of the engine parts that afternoon.

"I made several trips to Jowwett's shop over the course of the spring to work on it," said Aaron. "Jowwetts made a new front pedestal brace, machined the governor, inspected the cylinder rings and piston and a few other odds and ends while I was working on other engine parts back home in Iowa."

Aaron made many trips to Odessa to get the engine in operating condition. He re-piped the engine, had new grates made and removed the canopy. Later that spring he fired it for the first time. It ran better than what they had expected. The engine was then hauled to the Lathrop, Missouri steam show for the weekend before being hauled back to Aaron's shop north of Mt. Pleasant.

Work continued once he got the engine home. The list included a new

Busy Memorial Weekend Planned

For many, Memorial Weekend is the kick-off to summer. Here at Old Threshers the grounds spring to life with a lot of activity.

Friday and Saturday, May 22 and 23, is the Greater Iowa Swap Meet and Flea Market. McMillan Park will be filled with vendors selling everything from glassware to tractor parts. There will be a Gun Show in the Antique Car Building Friday through Sunday. Vendor spaces are still available.

Don't miss the 13th Annual Bussey Doll Event Saturday, May 23. Sponsored by Midwest Old Threshers and the Hawkeye Doll Club of Iowa. This year's theme is "Appreciating the Past, Embracing the Future." The registration fee is $55 and includes lunch, a souvenir gift and more.

Memorial Weekend also means extended hours for the Heritage Museums. Old Threshers will be open seven days a week starting Saturday, May 23. Perfect opportunity to come in and buy your five-day admissions at a discount!

As the days grow longer and warmer so does the chore list around Old Threshers. Many areas have work weekends planned throughout the summer. If you are interested in volunteering but find you are unable to volunteer during the Reunion there are plenty of opportunities through out the year. Our area directors and coordinators work hard for several weeks to make sure to offer a great experience to our visitors no only during the five-day Reunion but other times of the year as well.

For more information on any of the events at Old Threshers or volunteering, be sure to check out the website or call the office at 319-385-8937.

Plans Continue for New Exhibit in Museum B

In February of 2014, Lennis Moore took pen to paper and as he is known to do, created a masterpiece. No, it isn't artwork to hang on a wall, but rather a conceptual drawing of a new exhibit for Heritage Museum B.

The exhibit showcases a full-service gas station, rural and small town volunteer fire departments and the evolution of the trucking industry.

The fire house in the North Village housed valuable antique fire equipment that was only seen by the public when the doors were open during the five days of the Reunion.

Last year it was determined the structure was a safety hazard and was taken down. The hose carts are now in the Old Threshers Shop being repainted as we wait for the weather to warm up enabling work to begin in the Museum.

donations as well as financial support from the Old Threshers Foundation and Lennis' memorial will ensure Lennis' vision becomes a reality.

rear platform, three brand new riveted water tanks and head castings, a new governor pulley, three new step castings and side platform, new smoke box door handles, new marsh reverse gear guard casting, new canopy and braces, a rebuilt water pump, new babbit bearings in the reverse gear, re-poured the crankpin bearing, machined the crank pin, found a gear oil box and cylinder cock valve on eBay, new toolbox, new seat spring and operator seat and castings, lots of cleaning of bearings, new jacket band castings and list goes on.

Last winter after much debating with himself over how far he wanted to go make the engine look as original as possible, he decided it just wasn't complete without a boiler jacket. On a Sunday morning Aaron and his daughter Aicia headed out to Lowe's to pick up the wood that would be used as the insulation under the jacket, so after a few nights of cutting and fitting, the boiler was wrapped with wood and he began making craft paper patterns to use as a templates for the sheet metal. The sheet metal has been painted a dark gray and will have new brass bands to hold it on. Aaron plans to finish it off with the Advance gold leaf lettering on the side.

Aaron works full time for the National Guard as a heavy truck mechanic. Visitors to the Reunion can see Aaron and his engine threshing, plowing and sawing. Look for Aaron and his Advance in the Traction Steam Area at the 2015 Old Threshers Reunion.

Editor's Note: If you have a restoration story to share please contact Old Threshers at info@oldthreshers.org or call us at 319-385-8937.

(Above) Aaron's latest project is making a jacket for the Advance. The pieces of wood act as insulation. After the sheet metal is cut and fitted it was painted a dark gray. (Below) The brass bands keep it in place.

It was evident to all of those who knew him that Leroy truly enjoyed his work and was incredibly dedicated to it. Much of his life he spent farming, running his own business, McClure Fertilizer and Equipment, and later McClure Tiling and Bulldozing. Hard work was his way of life. Leroy enjoyed his steam engine hobby more than anything, and the vast circle of friends he has because of his involvement with steam engines and our agricultural heritage. He looked forward to yearly threshing bees, especially one being held on the family farm for many years. Operating his steam powered sawmill was always a great love of his. Some of his fondest memories came from picnics held for those who helped him in keeping the McClure traditions alive.

Leroy was a strong, upstanding well respected man, who always had a great willingness to help others, often with his unique sense of humor shining through. Though his words may have been few, those he held nearest and dearest always knew his heart was an extremely benevolent one, in his own quiet way. Leroy expressed compassion, devotion, and love that in no greater heart can be found.

Memorial will be to North East Missouri Old Threshers. Condolences may be expressed to the family at jonesmortuaryfh.com.
